OLD BUSINESS:

Port staffing issue was discussed and a consensus to hold over for the February meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

A discussion of the SeaLion hazing program and its relation to and with the Port continued to promote a lengthy discourse. The consensus was that the Port may make several demands of the program as the Port is ultimately responsible for the hiring and payment of the hazing crew. An outline of concerns will be developed and presented to the Curry Sport Fishing Association to state the Port's position. This matter will be continued at the February meeting.

MANAGER'S REPORT:

Huntley Park – Dykes, the Park Host was absent as he was monitoring the high water level at the park.

Port Manager – Roberts commented on the need to appoint a budget officer and the filling of up to 2 positions on the budget committee. Roberts reported the issuance of a grant in the amount of $3000 from SDAO to install a video security system. He also iterated the desire to pay off the Port's note #520138 of approximately $35,000. The Board's accepted this recommendation and instructed Kemp to do so. Roberts is to attend a seminar on public contracting law and will report to the Board changes to the statue. Roberts also prompted a discussion on the need to repair the office/shop building.

COMMISSIONER'S COMMENTS:

Riddle opened the comment with his desire to recreate a "Core Task List" which, in turn prompted the rest of the Board to weigh in with their comments.
